

The Queenslander Pictorial.

WITH THE TANGANYIKA EXPEDITION, EAST AFRICA.

Taking a load over the Mambo Plateau, 5400 ft. above the sea. Roads, bridges, and cuttings were made by the Expedition through virgin forest.

Central Press, photo.

In the Old Land.

A. Ward, photo.

Tipsy Wheat Harvest.

In Hwa Shetland Isles.

WITH THE BRITISH IN MESOPOTAMIA. ... • A War Nurse's Camera Record. • ...

Palm grove at Basra, on the Shatt-el-Arab.

Hospital building, Basra; bridge in foreground.

Hospital in Basra.

Mahalas or dhows on Tigris.

A Mahala in full sail.

Mahala rigged up for carrying troops.

Village and date palms near Basra.

A bullock team.

The Eruption of Waimangu, N.Z.

The Inferno, Waimangu. A huge lake of boiling water in the old crater of the volcano.

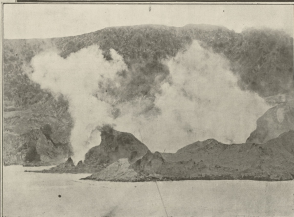

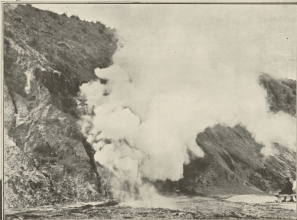

Also, a smaller lake.

THE ERUPTION AT WAIPANO, N. Z.

See
Page 29.

THE BLOW HOLE AT WAIPANO.

The great steam blow hole, as known to the natives, is located in the mountain side of Waipano, New Zealand. It has been found that the blow hole sends steam only occasionally, and only at short intervals. The blow hole is located in the mountain side.

STEAMING CLIFFS, WAIPANO.

Along the shores of Lake Waipano, the cliffs are covered with great volumes of steam and sulphurous fumes.

See
Page 29.

